INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION OF VIRGINIA

RICHMOND

Rules of Commission Adopted April 5, 1955

LIABILITY AND REQUIREMENTS OF EMPLOYER CARRYING WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION INSURANCE

Every employer taking out a workman's compensation insurance policy, or qualifying as a self-insurer, shall be subject to all the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act, which includes employers of farm and horticultural laborers and domestic servants providing employments are described in the policy declaration, and those who have regularly in service their own employees in the same business within this state, further provided that as each employer this rule shall remain in force only during the period of time covered by the workman's compensation insurance or by a certificate of self-insurance.

All such employers shall post and keep posted a copy of this rule together with a statement that workman's compensation insurance or certificate of self-insurance is in effect in places or places conspicuous to his employees. In unusual cases where such posting is impracticable, the same rule must be made known personally to the employees affected.

EMPLOYEES SUBJECT TO ACT UNLESS REJECTION RIGHT EXERCISED

Every employee of employers who have complied with the foregoing requirements shall be conclusively presumed to have elected to be bound by all the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act unless and until he notifies the Industrial Commission of Virginia in writing that he elects not to be bound by the provisions of the Act, in which case the burden of proof shall be provided in Section 65-40 (old Section 1887 (17)) of the Act.

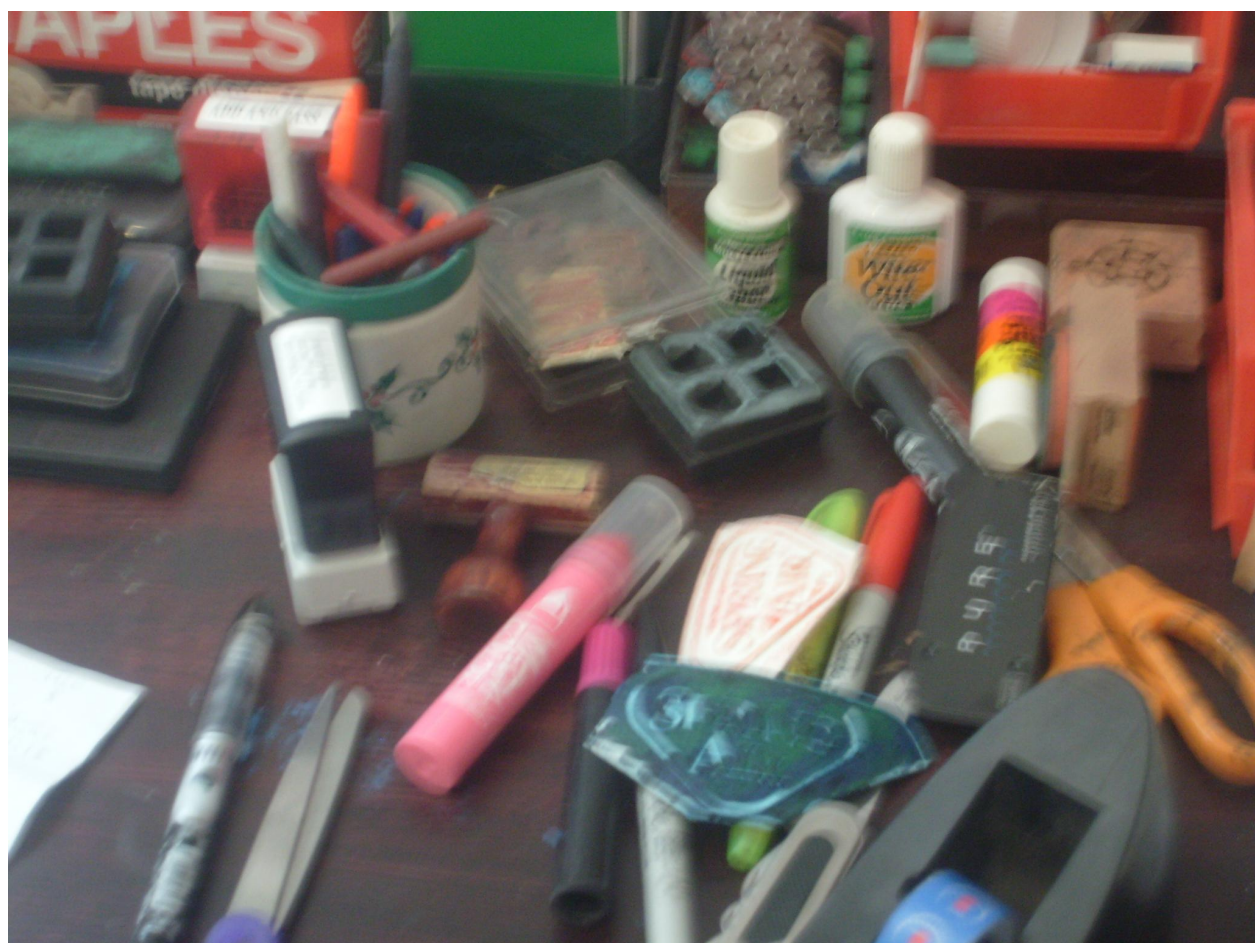

BY ORDER OF THE INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION OF VIRGINIA
E. M. SCOTT,

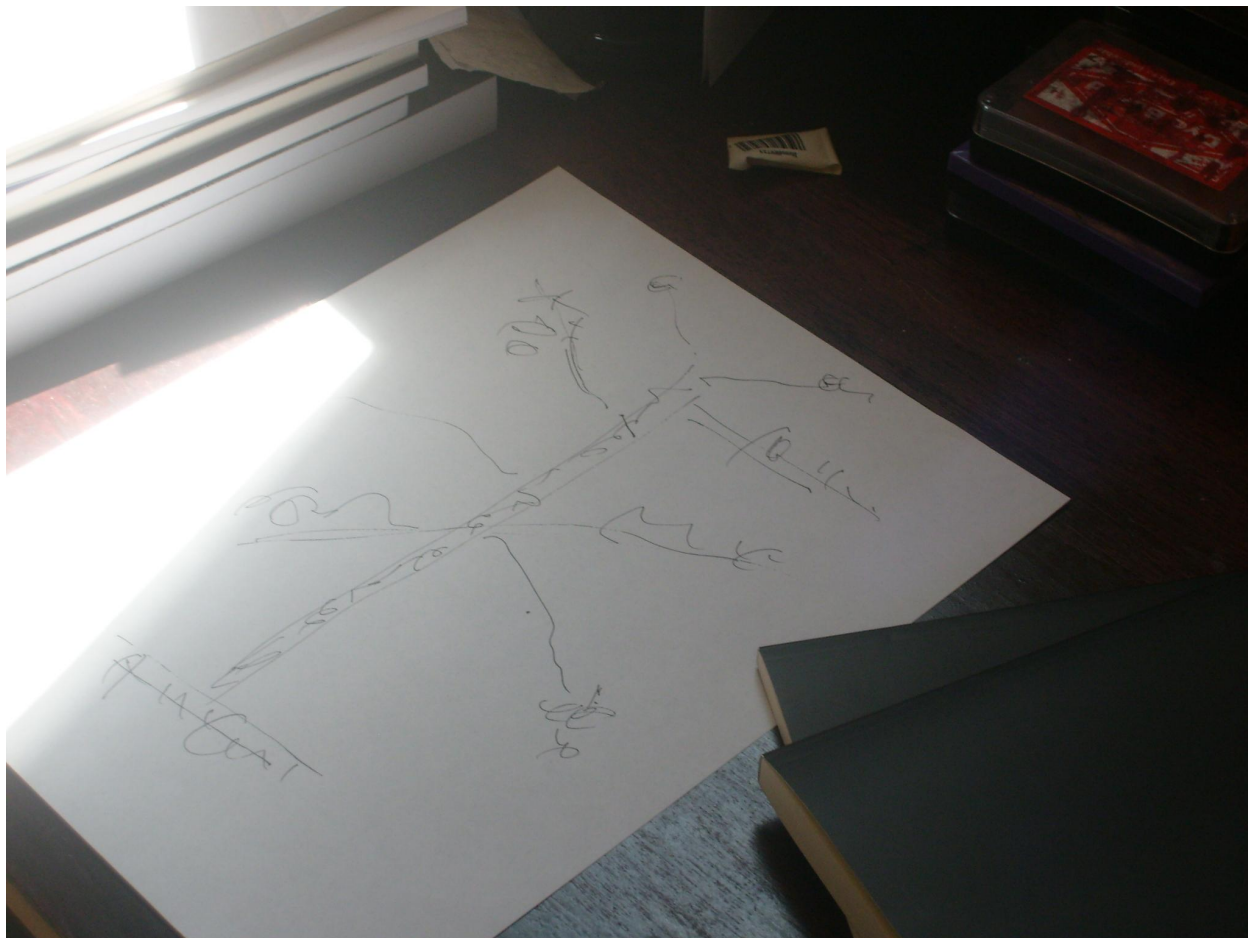

Clerk.

"SECTION 65-40 READS AS FOLLOWS: "An employer who elects not to be bound by this Act shall, in any action to recover damages for personal injury or death brought by an employee accepting the compensation provisions of this Act, postpaid as common law, the employer may avail himself of the defense of contributory negligence, and shall be liable for recovery of damages only if such negligence was not the proximate cause of the injury or death."
